Method of Giving Any Notice

61. Any notice (which term includes any communication or document), other than notice of a meeting of members or a meeting of the board, to be given (which term includes sent, delivered or served) pursuant to the Act, the articles, the by-laws or otherwise to a member, director, officer or member of a committee of the board or to the public accountant shall be sufficiently given:
- (a) if delivered personally to the person to whom it is to be given or if delivered to such person's address as shown in the records of the Corporation or in the case of notice to a director to the latest address as shown in the last notice that was sent by the Corporation in accordance with section 128 (Notice of directors) or 134 (Notice of change of directors);

A notice so delivered shall be deemed to have been given when it is delivered personally or to the recorded address as aforesaid; a notice so mailed shall be deemed to have been given when deposited in a post office or public letter box; and a notice so sent by any means of transmitted or recorded communication shall be deemed to have been given when dispatched or delivered to the appropriate communication company or agency or its representative for dispatch. The secretary may change or cause to be changed the recorded address of any member, director, officer, public accountant or member of a committee of the board in accordance with any information believed by the secretary to be reliable. The declaration by the secretary that notice has been given pursuant to this by-law shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the giving of such notice. The signature of any director or officer of the Corporation to any notice or other document to be given by the Corporation may be written, stamped, type-written or printed or partly written, stamped, type-written or printed.

OMISSIONS AND ERRORS

Invalidity of any Provisions of this By-law

62. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this by-law shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this by-law.

Omissions and Errors

63. The accidental omission to give any notice to any member, director, officer, member of a committee of the board or public accountant, or the non-receipt of any notice by any such person where the Corporation has provided notice in accordance with the by-laws or any error in any notice not affecting its substance shall not invalidate any action taken at any meeting to which the notice pertained or otherwise founded on such notice.

DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Dispute Resolution Mechanism

64. In the event that a dispute or controversy among members, directors, officers, committee members or volunteers of the Corporation arising out of or related to the articles or by-laws, or out of any aspect of the operations of the Corporation is not resolved in private meetings between the parties then without prejudice to or in any other way derogating from the rights of the members, directors, officers, committee members, employees or volunteers of the Corporation as set out in the articles, by-laws or the Act, and as an alternative to such person instituting a law suit or legal action, such dispute or controversy shall be settled by a process of dispute resolution as follows:
- (a) The dispute or controversy shall first be submitted to a panel of mediators whereby the one party appoints one mediator, the other party (or if applicable the board of the Corporation) appoints one mediator, and the two mediators so appointed jointly appoint a third mediator. The three mediators will then meet with the parties in question in an attempt to mediate a resolution between the parties.
 - (b) The number of mediators may be reduced from three to one or two upon agreement of the parties.
 - (c) If the parties are not successful in resolving the dispute through mediation, then the parties agree that the dispute shall be settled by arbitration before a single arbitrator, who shall not be any one of the mediators referred to above, in accordance with the provincial or territorial legislation governing domestic arbitrations in force in the province or territory where the registered office of the Corporation is situated or as otherwise agreed upon by the parties to the dispute. The parties agree that all proceedings relating to arbitration shall be kept confidential and there shall be no disclosure of any kind. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding and shall not be subject to appeal on a question of fact, law or mixed fact and law.

All costs of the mediators appointed in accordance with this section shall be borne equally by the parties to the dispute or the controversy. All costs of the arbitrators appointed in accordance with this section shall be borne by such parties as may be determined by the arbitrators. For the avoidance of doubt, if a dispute or controversy involves a member or members, on the one hand, and an officer or director (or officers or directors) on the other hand, and if the dispute or controversy was given rise to by some action(s) taken by the officer(s) or director(s) acting in good faith in his/her/their capacity as an officer(s) or director(s) of the Corporation, then all the costs of such officer(s) or director(s) in respect of the above-described mediation or arbitration shall be borne by the Corporation.

DISSOLUTION

Dissolution

65. The board may propose the voluntary liquidation and dissolution of the Corporation, or a member who is entitled to vote at an annual meeting of members may make such a proposal in accordance with section 163 of the Act, provided that:
 - (a) Notice of any meeting of members at which voluntary liquidation and dissolution is to be proposed shall set out the terms of the proposal; and
 - (b) The proposal to liquidate and dissolve is approved by a resolution passed by a majority of not less than ninety percent (90%) of the votes cast on that resolution for each class of members whether or not the members are otherwise entitled to vote.
66. Upon the dissolution or termination of the existence of the Corporation for any reason, any assets remaining after the payment and satisfaction of the debts and liabilities of the Corporation shall be distributed or disposed of to charitable organizations in Canada working for similar aims and objectives as the Corporation as determined by the board and which are qualified donees within the meaning of subsection 248(1) of the Income Tax Act and in no event shall the same be distributed or paid or shall otherwise be available for the personal benefit of any member of the Corporation.

EFFECTIVE DATE

Amendment of By-laws

67. Subject to the articles, the board may, by resolution, make, amend or repeal any by-laws that regulate the activities or affairs of the Corporation. Any such by-law, amendment or repeal shall be effective from the date of the resolution of directors until the next meeting of members where it may be confirmed, rejected or amended by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of a meeting duly called for the purpose of considering the said by-law. If the by-law, amendment or repeal is confirmed or confirmed as amended by the members it remains effective in the form in which it was confirmed. The by-law, amendment or repeal ceases to have effect if it is not submitted to the members at the next meeting of members or if it is rejected by the members at the meeting.

This section does not apply to a by-law that requires a special resolution of the members according to subsection 197(1) (fundamental change) of the Act because such by-law amendments or repeals are only effective when confirmed by members.

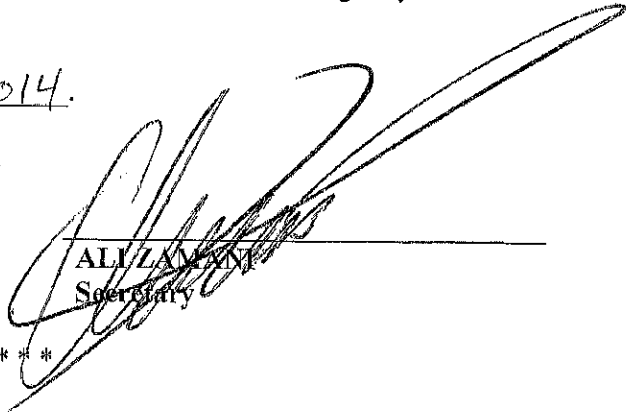

Effective Date

68. All previous by-Laws of the Corporation are repealed as of the coming into effect of this by-Law. The repeal shall not affect the previous operation of any by-Laws so repealed, or affect the validity of any act done, or right, privilege, obligation or liability acquired or incurred under, or the validity of any contract or agreement made pursuant to, or the validity of any articles or predecessor charter documents of the Corporation obtained pursuant to any such by-Laws before its repeal. All officers and persons acting under any by-Laws so repealed shall continue to act as if appointed under the provisions of this by-law, and all resolutions of the members or the board or a committee of the board with continuing effect passed under any repealed by-laws shall continue to be good and valid except to the extent they are inconsistent with this by-law and until amended or repealed. This by-law shall come into force when passed by the board and approved by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the members of a meeting duly called for the purpose of considering the said by-law.
